APA Citation for ECE 479

In this handout page numbers refer to pages in the APA manual.

Citing References in TEXT (p.174)
1 author: (Kessler, 2003)
Up to 5 authors: (Zuniga, Amon, Vessar, Basset & Marriott, 2012)
More than 5 authors: (Linney et al., 2000)

If you quote:
According to Long (2016), "Children with Angelman Syndrome typically have developmental delays that are frequently evident between 6-12 months of age" (p. 199).

If you paraphrase:
Long (2016) found that Angelman Syndrome manifest itself amongst children age 6-12 months (p.199).

Preparing the REFERENCES list
• The word References (not in bold, underlined or italics) must be on a new page, centered (p.37).
• References are listed alphabetically by author's last name (p.181).
• Double-space all entries (p.37).

FOR ARTICLES: USE the Digital Object Identifiers (DOI)

Article has a DOI number (p.198)
Use the number.

No DOI is available (p.199)
Provide the home page URL of the journal or of the book or report publisher, not the URL of the article. To find the URL of the journal: type the title of the journal in “ ” in a search engine, example: “online journal of interactive learning”.

No DOI AND you are unable to find the URL of the journal (p.192)
Use the home or entry page URL for the archive.
EXAMPLES

Article print/online (p.200)

Book - 1 author (see p. 202-204 for variations)

Book chapter (p.204 paper/online)

DVD (p.209)

Web Publications
Note: the APA Manual does not provide information about websites. Please refer to individual information from the APA Style website (http://www.apastyle.org/learn/quick-guide-on-references.aspx)

Cite an entire website: